“ I worked for Jack and Bonnie when they opened the beauty salon on Oak street. Before the cleaners, or at the same time cleaners were opened. I actually attended the Brunswick Beauty School with Bonnie, Jack was a good man and a godd boss. I knew him also from the years living in Isabella district. My thoughts and prayers for the family.

“ Jack Mansfield was one of the funniest people I ever knew. He talked about going to California and the freeways there. Hilarious. He dressed as a gorilla in Waycross and went all over town in that getup. I just loved him. Wonderful memories of trips to Jacksonville.
