“ Betty, you were the oldest of our Scarborough clan and you definitely kept us on our toes. We created such wonderful memories with you & Flournoy when we had our lake house for 24 years.
From late night fishing to early morning boat cruises, to praying Rhonda & Ricky would not break a bone while riding their motorcycles all over Chattahoochee Plantation Estates. Thank you for loving my children the way you did! We will miss you Betty Sue Cox! Give all of our loved ones a hug! Until we meet again 💜
