

Brett Michael Williams

February 2, 1983 - December 3, 2024

Brett Michael Williams, age 41, of Tifton, died Tuesday, December 3rd, 2024.

He was born on February 2, 1983 to Mitch and Patricia Williams- and he spent his life in the Tifton community. He was a graduate of Tiftarea Academy and spent his years in school filled with activities- playing football, basketball, and baseball for Tift County. He was an avid Georgia football fan and could be found cheering on the Dawgs every Saturday during football season. He loved sports and loved watching the games- but more than anything he loved his family. His kind and caring personality carried with him in everything that he did and he would do anything to help others.

Survivors include his mother- Patricia Williams, son- Tye Williams, and brother- Lance Williams.

Brett was preceded in death by his father- Mitch Williams.

Memorial Service will be held at 3:00pm, Wednesday, December 11th 2024, at Crossview Church in Tifton.

“ Remembering all the time he spent as a young boy playing ball and following Lance and his friends around from ball field to ball field. He was a sweet and fun fellow. My husband remembers the 8 years he spent coaching Brett and his friends in softball and the championship games they won. You will be missed Brett by all your friends and family.
