“ Craig was my grandpa, my Papaw. His passing was such a shock and I'm still struggling to this day. He is the best papaw ever and no one can replace him. I still text him to this day, I know I won't get a response, but, I still do it because I never did when he was still here.

“ In the 30 years that I have known him, he has always been a great friend and service manager. I always loved to hear the stories from when he was a floor technician. Those were some crazy things the guys done back then. If there was anything I needed to talk to him about, he would say, what's up bud. He trusted me to always be in charge of the shop when he was not there. He was strict, but fair. No sitting around on his shift. You better be working. He is my friend and will always be. I already miss him. Prayers for the family, God bless. Your family friend, Willie j. Johnson.
