

Dennis Eugene Arbuckle

September 13, 1955 - September 18, 2025

Dennis Eugene Arbuckle, 70, passed away on September 18, 2025 after a long, hard fought battle to heal from a motorcycle accident. Born in Albany, Georgia on September 13, 1955, Dennis spent his childhood years traveling the country and the world with his military parents. After graduating from Merritt Island High School, he pursued a career in management. He married his first wife, Barbara Arbuckle in 1975 and had two kids, Brian and Rebecca Arbuckle. He held multiple managerial positions, most notably The Atlanta Journal Constitution.

In 2000, he married his second wife, Sandra Arbuckle and adopted her daughter, Emily Arbuckle. After retiring from the newspaper, he spent his remaining years doing yard work, building things, watching his favorite TV shows and loving his two chihuahuas, Bendi and Harley.

Dennis was a sweet, kind hearted and loving man with an abstract sense of humor. He loved telling stories from his childhood, even after we've heard them before. He loved the Lord above all else, and did his best to walk the Christian path.

Dennis is preceded in death by his parents, Alvin & Christine Arbuckle, and his sister Joyce Arbuckle.

Dennis is survived by his children, Brian, Rebecca & Emily Arbuckle, his grandchildren, Dylan Arbuckle & Wyeth Barker, his siblings, Janice Bloomer and Robert & Joyce Arbuckle, and many nieces, nephews and cousins.
