She was born in Tift County Georgia to the late Clifton and Mary Thompson Chandler on October 14, 1951. In her free time, she loved to travel and antique, always finding something that caught her eye. When her husband, Alvin Black, became sick, Diane was a devoted wife and caretaker, caring for him for 17 years until he passed in 2005. She had the sweetest, easy going spirit about her that will be missed.
