Dominick Bombardier Obituary

Dominick Anthony Nicolas Bombardier or better known as “Dan The Man” age 24 of Berrien County went home to be with Jesus on April 29, 2021. Mr. Bombardier was born in Atlanta, Georgia on May 31, 1996 to Nicolas Bombardier and the late Lisa Walker. He was a High School graduate of Berrien County. “Dan the Man” touched the hearts of everyone that he came in touch with and embraced everyone during his life and oh what a great life he had. He loved people and spending time with them, he never met a stranger. He loved mud bogging trucks and lived life to the fullest. He had told his brother when he got to Heaven he was going to run across Heaven in his Nike’s.

Mr. Bombardier is survived by his Grandmother Geraldine Walker of Enigma, one brother Micheal (April) McCuskey of Enigma, extended family Emily & Eddy Drawdy and family, Bubba & Molli Futch and family, and Brooke & Eric Hughes and Family, numerous Nieces & Nephews. The family will be having a memorial service next Saturday May 8 with the time and place to be posted when available here on reflections page.

Reflection Cremation & Funeral service is in charge of the arrangements.

“ Me walking in the house and Dan would tell Sunshine and hold his arms for a hug and we play trucks..

“ *Mud-boggin and hot chicks - that's what he loves to talk about! I bet he's doing wheelies in his monster truck in heaven now. Dan gave the best hugs and never let you leave without one (not that you'd want to)! The world will be a bit dimmer without his bright light and big heart. He loved all he met. Never has there been a sweeter soul.
Prayers for his family, especially April who gave him excellent care and showed him such compassion. Love to y'all. I will miss him.*

“ The first time I met Dan he automatically accepted me as family. He always wanted me to be happy and because of him I was. I always thought he needed me more, but the truth was I needed him. He saved me, showed me what it was to look at life as a gift. I will forever miss you handsome.

“ I worked at BMS while he was there. My favorite part of the day was taking Dan the Man up front to look at the trucks. He loved every single person he came in contact with and just the same everyone who knew him loved him. Thank you for sharing your precious son with us. He will always have a place in my heart t!!! Prayers for your family and his friends. ♥️♥️🙏🙏

“ I first met my Cousin when he was maybe 8 years old. I fell in love with him immediately when I seen that black cowboy hat riding up on his two wheels lol. He gave me the biggest hug like he knew me forever. He was always an angel but now he has his wings. Give your mommy a big hug for me in heaven!!
