“ I don't have a ton of good memories of my childhood. But of those that I do, many were with you, Jesse, and Monica. Jumping on the trampoline, spending weekends and summers together, climbing trees, pretending together, going to the sink holes, Apalachicola and Port Saint Joe. Jesse was like a brother to me and Monica a sister. I remember missing you guys so much when you moved from Quincy to Woodville. And even more when we moved to Houston. After moving away, we grew apart but I want you to know that I love you Aunt Chris. And I'm thankful for the role you played in my life. Things have turned out pretty well for me. My wife is an amazing woman who loves me more than I deserve. Our son impresses us every day with how smart and loving he is. Both mine and Rachel's parents live nearby and we have awesome friends that we regularly travel and do fun things with. Everyone is healthy and my business is doing well. Somehow I turned out okay and, for whatever you had to do with that, thank you. I will always remember you as my young at heart, cool Aunt Chris. Wishing you comfort and peace. Your #1 nephew, Joshua Robin
