“ Uncle Fred and Michael Lynn came to see me last spring. We as always had a wonderful memorable visit. I can remember when I was just a young man I'd go spend the weekend with Danny and Mike and we'd go Coon hunting and I always had a great time with them and uncle Fred. Uncle Fred had a Yelp or a holler and he taught his boys to do the same. That's the way they kept up with one another while in the woods hunting or when it was time for super or when he wanted us to come in from outside. I always enjoyed talking with uncle Fred because he talked to me with respect and he told me something one time that meant more to me than anything and I'll never forget it. It was just a few words, but meaningful to me, he looked at me and said, son I'm proud of you boys all three of you. James sometimes may not tell ya'll that, but he is too. I love uncle Fred just as I love all of my uncles, but each one in a different way. God bless the family. I'll be remembering all of ya'll in my prayers. Sorely but Respectively submitted Nephew Ofc.
