

George Wallace McLendon

September 8, 1932 - April 27, 2026

George Wallace McLendon, 93, of Nashville, passed away peacefully at his residence on April 27, 2026.

Born on September 8, 1932 to Elry and Qussie Ruth Lineberger McLendon, he was raised in Berrien County and lived there until he left to work in Atlanta, where he stayed for 20 years, before retiring and moving back to Berrien to be with family. He enjoyed spending time with his family, and could often be found hunting, fishing, and enjoying the outdoors.

Survivors include his sons- Tommy McLendon and Steven McLendon, nine grandchildren, many great grandchildren, and two brothers- Clifford McLendon and Norman McLendon.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two children- Mike McLendon and Brenda McLendon, as well as three brothers and three sisters.

Per his wishes, no formal services will be held.