

Grant Carter Easterday

April 8, 1965 - May 5, 2025

It is with deep and all encompassing sorrow that I announce the passing of my handsome, big hearted, intelligent and loving husband Grant Carter Easterday. He took his last breath at home on the 5th May 2025 surrounded by love, he was never alone.

Grant is survived by his wife Melissa Anne Edwards Easterday, his parents Darrell and Judith Easterday, his children Andrew Easterday, Alexandra Easterday, Cameron Easterday and Victoria Waggoner Kern.

Grant moved to Tifton in 2016 and started to carve out a life with Melissa. He loved his wife, his home and his pets with all he had. Like grain in wood his friendships were varied, numerous and ran deep. His ability to repair furniture was a marvel to see as dents, cracks, scratches, breaks and marks disappeared under his touch. He was a true, dedicated and trusted craftsman. He will be greatly missed.

A Memorial Service will be held at Reflections on Sunday 18th May at 6pm where we can share stories and remember a truly unique man. Dress code is informal but tie dye is encouraged, we all know how much he loved his tie dye.

“ My deepest condolences go out to Melissa, his parents, and his children. I knew from the day we met that he was my people. What I didn't know was how much I would learn from him, and not just about furniture, but about how to be a human. Grant was truly one of a kind, and he left an indelible and treasured mark on my life. As a craftsman he was a master. As a teacher he was patient and encouraging. As a friend he was generous and supportive. As a person, he was the best of us. Grant abided. I don't know about you, but I took comfort in that. It was good knowing he was out there. Grant. Takin' 'er easy for all us sinners. Goodnight, sweet prince.

“ The world is lesser for his loss. But he'll always live on in my memories and heart. There is no man quite like my Dad. So many good years I've had with him but it would never be enough. There aren't adequate words to say how much I love him and how much I'll miss him. These are all I have. You were the best parent imagined Dad, all my laughs will be for you. It's never goodbye with you, just see you later.

“ *Dennis and I send our heartfelt sympathy and love to Melissa, Judy and Darrell, and all others of Grant's family and friends. He truly was devoted to his family (including his furever relations) and friends. He had a phenomenal wizardry with wood! Once, he sat on our living room floor, rolled out a sleeping bag-sized cache of tools, and repaired the broken glass-and-wood door of our entertainment center. You would never have known it wasn't the original! He was a giver, caring and unassuming, and we are proud to have had him as our dear friend. Travel swiftly to Valinor, Grant.
