

Isadore Macher Edwards

September 17, 1972 - September 12, 2024

We are celebrating the life of Isadore Macher Edwards. Isadore was an amazing son, father, brother, uncle, granddad and friend. Isadore was a genius with electronics and could fix anything. He was also an elite level gamer, challenging some of the best online gamers in the nation. He enjoyed time with his family and friends. He was lowkey but full of life and laughs. He loved being well dressed and showing off his wonderful smile. Isadore rescued cats that he loved and cared for at his home. He ensured they had a good and better life. Everyone who encountered Isadore LOVED him immediately. He made meaningful and lasting connections everywhere he went. He will be missed but always close to us in spirit and in our hearts.

September 17, 1972 – September 12, 2024

The family will host a Celebration of Life event for Isadore at his favorite local restaurant and at his home.
