“ Met Jacy soon after she moved to Tifton. We were in junior high school. Loved her as my younger sister. She is a joy to be with. Will be missed greatly. Candle lit.

“ Jacy was a bubbly, precious soul with just enough mischievousness mixed in. She always kept us guessing. I remember her so fondly.
My condolences to her Mom, son, daughter in me and her grandchildren. If you need some stories to tell the littles, just give anyone in the TCHS classes of 72-75 a call. Jacy, you are already missed. Youll raise hell, well raise more, Were the Class of 74

“Condolences to her family. I met Jacy back when she joined the Ben Hill Co. Sheriff's Office. I was a dispatcher for Fitzgerald PD. She was great to work with. She was fearless. She went to a club and broke up a fight and made an arrest by herself. I often chatted with Jacy on Facebook. I'll miss her. God bless her and her family.
