

James Michael Cumbie

September 9, 1954 - February 6, 2025

James Michael Cumbie, age 70, died February 6, 2025 at Dodge County Hospital.

He was born on September 9, 1954 and served his country in the Air Force and was an air traffic controller. In his more active years, he would spend his off days going to auctions and treasuring hunting. He was a history guru and enjoyed following politics, especially Donald Trump. He was an avid fan of the Georgia Bulldogs and would take the games very seriously when watching. Most importantly, he loved his family. He was a dedicated family man, and spent many good times with his brother, Ricky.

Survivors include his children- James Christopher Cumbie, Amber (David) Bowling, Adam (Cynthia) Cumbie, Brandon Chesley Cumbie, 8 grandchildren, two brothers- Ricky (Daurie) Cumbie, and Brad (Matt) Turner, and one sister- JoAnn Brown, as well as 12 nieces and 8 nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife- Sue Cumbie, mother and spouse- Barbara (Bill) Turner, and father- James Chesley Cumbie. He was also preceded in death by his sister and brother in law- Jennifer (Jeff) Mulford.

Tribute Wall

KM

“ You will be missed dearly uncle Mike. Love yall!

---

Kailey Mulford - February 11, 2025 at 05:57 PM

AM

“ You had the biggest heart and loved your family more than anything. You will be missed dearly Pop Pop. Rest in Peace with Nana. We love you dearly!

---

Amanda McVay - February 11, 2025 at 05:09 PM

LR

“ RIP Uncle Mike! I'm very thankful for the years I lived close to you and Aunt Sue. Love you and the entire Cumble crew!

---

lindsey Riggs - February 11, 2025 at 05:01 PM