“ Brother...After a little time to reflect, I am both gladdened and saddened. I will always cherish the good times and memories we shared. You suffered and fought for so long and hard with this horrible disease. Now that your fight is over I think of the song “Go Rest High on that Mountain” for I know you have earned it. Since you have left us so soon, I rejoice knowing that you have been given the greatest gift of all being received into the life ever after where there is no pain and suffering. You will forever live in My Heart and Memory...Love You Kenny

“ Jimmy, you were always a handsome fella. I have always loved you and even though we didn't get to see each other much all my brother's children are dear to my heart. May you Rest In Peace for your suffering is over. You had to answer the call that we will all have to answer one day. RIP my dear nephew.
