Jehue Dill Obituary

July 09, 2023, Jehue Edgar Dill, 58, of Tifton, GA, passed away peacefully at his home with loved ones at his side. Early that morning, the clouds lifted and he was ushered to heaven as he slept.

Born October 16, 1964 to Emma Dell and Jehue Edgar Dill Sr. he lived his rambunctious young life in Ocilla, GA with his three siblings Eddie, Debra, and Jerry.

Jehue was strong willed and stubborn at times, but he also had an enormous heart and wonderful sense of humor. He was generous, bold, and brave. In his many jobs, those he loved the most was painting houses and washing cars to perfection! He was a big Georgia Bulldog fan and loved cheering them on each season, he was happy to see them become back-to-back national champions. He also enjoyed watching nascar, throwing darts, and driving corvettes.

He will be remembered for all the heart he shared with his friends and family. He truly loved each of them and if you knew him, you knew it. He will be missed dearly.

Jehue is survived by his daughter and her family: Jozie Elizabeth Brady (24) &

Kyle Lawrence Brady and one grandchild, Beckham Basil Brady (2 months) all of Norcross, GA.

Jehue is also survived by his siblings: brother, Eddie Dill and wife, Belinda of Tifton; sister, Debra Dill Betancourt, of Indiana and niece Judy Abad, of Miami, Florida; his sister-in-law Angie Dill, of South Carolina and his nephews and niece Michael Dill, Jake Dill, and Kelly Dill.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Michael Gerald "Jerry" Dill.

“ I knew “Little Jehue” my whole life. I remember having quite the crush on him when I was about 12. He was a sweet kid and absolutely hilarious, like his brothers. Very sad for the loss to Eddie and Jozie especially, but I know Jehue is overjoyed to be reunited with his mom, dad, and Jerry. Much love to all of the Dills.

“ I knew Jehue in the 8th grade in Irwin County. I reconnected with him about 2 months ago when he came unto our hospice. Our reconnection was fast and strong. He was open with a heart full of love. I stayed close to him as his body became weaker but his Spirit became stronger. He felt both loved and forgiven. The day before he died, I was in his home. He wanted me to help him sit up on the sofa. He said to me, "I'm dying." I said, "Yes, your body is dying." He said, "Will it take long?" I said, "No, it will not be long. Are you afraid?" and he made strong eye contact with me and said, "No. I'm ready." It was an honor to have been with him in those last days. He never lost his sense of humor and he never demonstrated any fear or worry about crossing over and going Home. The last thing I said to him was, "I will see you there." We all will. This life is your journey. Make it a good one by letting Love lead the way in all things you do. It is the reason you came to Earth- to learn to Love.

“ Jehue, words cannot express how much I am going to miss you. You always made me laugh. Remember when you came to my parents house to get a haircut just before I got married and you told my parents that you thought I was too young to get married, as if you were my big brother!! I have so many happy memories of you and I will cherish each one. Rest in Peace my friend. 💙
