Jessica Coburn Obituary

Jessica Lee (Williford) Coburn tragically left us on 7-28-2023. Jessica was born September 28, 1953, in Fort Bragg, SC., to the late Dorothy Virginia Evans Williford and Curtis Franklin Williford, Sr., which preceded her in death along with two brothers Curtis Franklin "Frankie" Williford, Jr., David Michael "Mike" Williford and Mike and Lorraine's son, Dallas Michael Williford.

She has left behind a loving daughter and son, Stacey W. Buckley and W. Michael Coburn and his wife Dawn Coburn and her son, Damian. A brother; James Carlo "Jim" Williford, an uncle and his wife; Billie and Rennie Evans, Selina Popovich Evans and her three beautiful kids; Ayla Evans, Aidan Evans, and Lachlan Evans, a sister-in-law and her husband; Lorraine and Mark Fletcher, two nieces; Amber "Williford" and her husband Bruce Gibbs and Candice "Candi" Williford, along with their beautiful children; Jada Gibbs, Keira Gibbs, Chloe Gibbs, Grayson Gibbs, Link Williford, and Rowan Williford, and numerous cousins here in our deeply rooted family tree.

Jessica loved all her animals, but she especially loved her Yorkies, along with sewing, quilting, gardening, and collecting anything miniature. She was quite the story teller, she knew how to add a "tall tale" to a memory to make you laugh even harder. she will be greatly missed!

In lieu of flowers or donations, please plant a tree in her name.

“ A Memorial tree was ordered in memory of Jessica L Coburn by Janet Connell. Plant a Tree She was a very good friend and co-worker to my mom Janis Turner at Walmart doing demos. She really could make you laugh with her stories and she didn't meet no strangers that she couldn't put a smile on their face. Janet Connell

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Jessica. I went to school with Jessica and Frankie in Nashville, Ga where their mother taught school for many years. She was my teacher in 3rd or 4th grade. I now live in Brookfield across the street from Frankie's house.
