Jodine Marie Boykin, 63, born March 27, 1962, in Portland, Maine, passed away on January 14th, 2026 surrounded by love. She was the beloved daughter of Phyllis Startz and Joseph Startz.

Jodine was preceded in death by her parents and her husband, Dale Boykin Sr. She is survived by her loving children, Joseph Boykin, Dale Boykin Jr., and Christopher Boykin; her sisters Judith Kelly, Janice (Greg) Rogers, Jennie Startz, and Kathy (Russell) Barstad; her brothers George Kelly and Rodney Startz; and her grandchildren Autumn Boykin, Elizabeth Boykin, and Kendyl Marie Boykin.

After retiring, Jodine embraced the simple joys of life. She found peace in gardening, loved the excitement of bingo, and enjoyed traveling or spending time at the beach whenever she could. Some of her happiest moments were spent playing cards with family and friends, laughing, and making memories. Above all else, Jodine was deeply passionate about her family—her love for them was constant, fierce, and unconditional.

Jodine will be remembered for her warmth, her devotion to those she loved, and the way she made people feel at home simply by being herself. Her presence leaves a space that can never be filled, but her love will live on through the many lives she touched.

A celebration of life will be held at Turner Primitive Baptist Church on February 7th at 11:00 a.m. in Enigma, Georgia. Family and friends are invited to attend and honor Jodine's life and legacy.
