Mr. Lollar was born October 11, 1948 to the late Charles Everett Lollar and Jewell Alexander Lollar in Hahira, Ga. He was a member of the community for 71 years and served his country honorably in the United States Navy during the Vietnam conflict. He was a simple man that worked hard as an auto paint and body technician. He never missed a day of work and even worked on holidays. Most Saturdays were spent teaching his daughters all about cars as he worked on them and other Saturdays were spent around the pond fishing with his daughters. Fishing and Nascar were his passions and he was the biggest Dale Earnhardt fan ever. He was a man of few words but was light hearted and never said no to anyone needing a helping hand and never expected anything in return. He would give all he had and keep little for himself.

Survivors include two daughters, Traci Kirkland (Durward Lastinger) of Hahira and Kimberly (Robert) Carter, grandchildren, Cambria Clifton, Laura

Kirkland, Bailey Kirkland, Logan Johnson, Gracie Huston and Asher Merritt, one sister Julie Tanner of Texas a special niece, Debra Williams of Texas and a special friend Ronnie Wilkes.
