Joseph McNure Obituary

Joseph David McNure, 78, of Tifton, died on Monday, July 17, at Legacy Village. Joe was born in Pensacola, Florida into a Coast Guard family, who later settled in Garfield, Georgia, where he grew up. He graduated from Georgia Military College and pursued graduate studies in business at Armstrong State University (now a part of Georgia Southern University). As a shipping supervisor for Union Camp Corporation (now Hood Packaging), he was instrumental in establishing the plant in Tifton, which is still in operation. He loved hunting, fishing, woodworking, and spending time with friends and family.

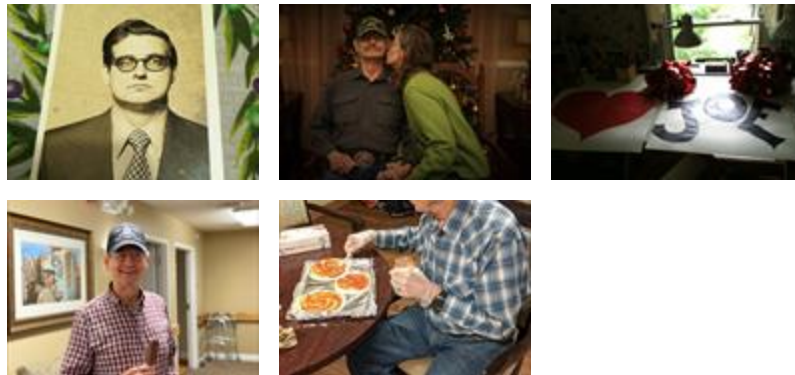

He is survived by his loving wife of 53 years, Sandra McNure, of Tifton; devoted daughter Jennifer McNure of Madison, North Carolina; and siblings Mamie Flynn of Birmingham, Alabama; Eva Stewart of Twin City, Georgia; and Mose "Bud" McNure of Chincoteague, Virginia.

“ Joe McNure was such a nice, funny guy. When I was younger, I visited with Sandy; and Joe made me feel like a member of the family. My love goes out to the family. I have wonderful, laughter-filled memories of spending time with Sandy and Jennifer and Joe.
