“ Shari, Steph and Sawyer.....I want you all to know how sorry and heartbroken I am that he is not here with all of us any longer. His body, mind and soul are whole and he is with all those that left this place we call home before him. He will surely be missed and have a place in our hearts that is etched with the love we hold onto for him. He will never ever be forgotten. He is in a better place and is looking down on you. Keep his memories alive and the love will never die. Know you are all loved!
