

Kimberly Ann Grant

October 13, 1966 - August 15, 2025

Kimberly Grant, 58, of Orlando, Florida passed away on August 15, 2025. Born on October 13, 1966, in Salem, Massachusetts, Kim lived her life with passion, humor, and a heart full of love.

She is survived by her four daughters: Amanda Grant, Chelsea Grant, Caitlin Baker, and Elizabeth Shepherd. She was a proud and devoted grandmother to Aidan Grant, Anthony Grant, Devin Grant, Gracie Grant, Halen Grant, Nathan Bride, Abel Morel, Cataleya Ricketts, Luca Ricketts, and Kaleb McNally. Her love for her family was boundless, and being a grandmother was one of her greatest joys.

Kim worked as a saleswoman, where her charm, honesty, and warm personality made a lasting impression on everyone she met. Outside of work, she loved to cook delicious meals, Relax with Lifetime movies, listen to country music, and spend time at the beach—her happy place. Most of all, she loved being present for her family in every way she could.

Kim wasn't just a great mom—she was a cool mom. She brought laughter, light, and a sense of fun into everything she did, and she always made those around her feel seen and loved.

She will be remembered for her honesty, kindness, intelligence, quick wit, and unwavering love. Kim had a beautiful spirit and a soul that brought light to everyone around her. Her favorite saying, “Carpe Diem”—seize the day—was not just a motto but the way she lived her life.

Her strength, warmth, and laughter will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.
