Linda Lattin Obituary

Linda Marie Thomas Lattin, 73, of Hahira, Georgia passed away at her home February 13, 2021 surrounded by her family. She was born August 14, 1947 in Bangor, Maine to Fred and Louise Thomas.

She is survived by her three children; Gerald (Kathy) Lattin of Hahira, Theba (Jonathon) Howell of Nashville, and Lyrae (Donald) Berry of Hahira; 12 grandchildren; 9 great grandchildren; one sister Pat Bolt of Arizona, and one brother Steven Thomas of New Hampshire

Linda retired from Walmart after over 20 years. She traveled often to her home town where she enjoyed walking on the beach of Corea, Maine looking for sea glass. She loved visiting Lighthouses whenever she was on the coast. She was very artistic with lots of interests, whether it was drawing, painting, building doll houses or making delicate Christmas ornaments. She loved spending time with her family and talking about the places she lived with her husband who was in the military.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Fred and Louise Thomas and her husband Harold S. "Jim" Lattin.

A private service will be held at a later time in Bangor, Maine.
