“ We lived next door to the Massey's and I have known Marydale all her life! Always called her parents Uncle Eber and Aunt Ida. They were like kin to us! Loved that whole family!

“Mary Dale and I were best buds when we were kids. I have never forgotten the wonderful times we had traipsing through the woods and fields, playing in ditches and barns, swimming in the neighborhood ponds, and riding bikes and horses. We spent a lot of time playacting; we pretended we were sisters, actresses, world travelers. My name was Stacy; Mary Dale was always Gladys. Mary Dale was a very sweet kid who grew to be a very sweet woman. She enjoyed life to the fullest. Our lives took different paths and we grew apart, but she has always had a special place in my heart. Go rest high, Gladys.
