Born on August 12, 1941 in Albany, Georgia, Mimi was a devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She lived her life with grace, strength, and deep love for her family. Her warmth, laughter, and unwavering support shaped the lives of everyone who had the privilege to know her.

Meriam is survived by her four children: Denise Kammerer (David), Mike Day (Bethany), Kelly Day (Michelle), and Kevin Day (Kendra), and her 9 grandchildren: Breanna (Ashley), Zachary (Natalie), Jake, Alyssa, Bud, Hannah, Mikaya, Kenlea and EmmaKate, and her beloved three great grandchildren: Kagen, Aiden, and Deáglan. She was preceded in death by her husband Lawrence W. Day, Jr, her parents Pearl Israel Johnson Haskey, Hershel Johnson, and Raymond Haskey, and her siblings Larry and Rodney.

She will be remembered for her fierce love of family, her kindness toward others and her bottomless pot of goulash that fed many kids.

“ Mimi, I remember our many adventures to Cuba. When I was little I remember you putting me on your knee and we were going to Cuba, you would bounce your knee up and down. I remember seeing sharks, whales, seaweed, dolphins, lots of dolphins. You have always been very special to me mimi. I love you and I miss you so much. I hope you are at peace and resting well now.

“ I remember piling as many kids as possible into the brown station wagon. We were on our way to McDonald's!!! as we got out of the car, she handed each of us $1, then lined us up in a straight line. We were to order four hamburgers then get back in the car. When we got home we each got to eat a hamburger, and the rest went into the refrigerator 🌀 ... And that's how she fed the neighborhood for $0.25 a piece.
