Patricia Klusman Obituary

Patricia grew up in Quincy, Illinois where she met her highschool sweet heart, Gary Klusman. They started a family and eventually moved to Cordele, Georgia. She was a homemaker and was very involved in the lives of her children and grandchildren. Anyone who knew her would describe her as being incredibly kind and giving. She spent her free time reading and traveling. Patricia and her husband raised 4 successful children who went on to have children of their own. Her oldest son, Kenneth Klusman is married to Jane Hainesworth Klusman and they share two daughters, Jessica and Amanda Klusman. Her second son, Kip Klusman is married to Amber Klusman. Their children are Kyle Klusman, Kadyr Tanner and McKenzie Beavers. Her youngest child, daughter Kimberly Klusman, has two children, Ashley Holt Squires and Dustin Klusman. Patricia also raised granddaughter, Ashley Holt Squires, who is married to Michael Squires. They are the parents to her great grand children Garrison Squires and Parker Squires.

The family will host a private memorial service Saturday, February 29th in Cordele, GA. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Alzheimer's Association.
