

Raymond Leroy Cabe

June 5, 1935 - August 4, 2024

Services will be held on Saturday, August 17, 2024, at Bridgeboro Baptist Church with visitation with family and friends at 2:00 pm with services to follow.

Raymond (Pap) was born on June 5, 1935, in East Point, Ga. to John and Gertrude Cabe. He was a man of many talents. He could fix anything, build anything and saw potential in everything! He was in sales for Pet Milk and Ralston Purina during his working career. He was a go anywhere, fit right in, kind of guy. He was, a gentleman, a jokester, a fun-loving compassionate man of God. He was an active member of Bridgeboro Baptist Church through the years. Raymond was known for the smile on his face and a song in his heart.

Survivors include his wife, Jo Cabe of 55 years, his children, Lee Cabe (Carol Sue), Theresa Key (Donnie), Brenda James, and Sharee' Sanders (Randy). He left behind many grandchildren: Alex Cabe, Chris Cabe, Candi Ussery, Brandon Key (Heather), Stewart Gayre, Hannah Avery, Danni-Raye Avery, Sydney Avery, Adranna Sanders, and Sean Sanders. Great grandchildren include

Madi Gayre, Roy-Thomas Key, Sutton Key, Ayden Ussery and Keyton Ussery.

Survivors

also include two sisters and many nieces and nephews.

His remains will be at his home in Bridgeboro until services are held.
