“ *I got to know Roger when we were young. Carlton was my first BF.
All the gang would get together and ride the streets. We would go to Nan's house and Carlton and Cameille's house. Roger was the sweetest of all of us. Had a memory like a safe. I loved talking to him. The old gang, Roger Henry, Carlton Carter, Durant Exum, Nan Johnson, Dennis (not even going to try to spell that) and myself.
Roger I miss you buddy, and enjoyed our yard sale meets. Tell them all hello for me up there.*

“ Roger Henry was my best friend and was part of our family for many years. My children and grandchildren grew up calling Roger "Uncle Roger". He taught them about cars and helped them with their projects. He was the Sales Manager for Auto Quest for more than 30 years. He was very knowledgeable about Vintage and Exotic cars and practically anything mechanical. He could repair most anything from 1906 Fords to the classics to the MGs, Jaguars, Porsches, Ferraris and Lamborghinis. Roger was a "People" person. He got along well with everyone and was known for helping a friend in need. Roger was a man of many talents. Things not mentioned about him was that he was well know nationally for his Volkswagen knowledge. He constructed numerous sand rails and dune buggys. Earlier in his life he built and successfully raced dirt track race cars. He was a crane operator for Tifton Machine Works and he had his own repair shop. People came to him to repair their cars and to build race car engines. He was a master cook on the grill and we remember the many times we enjoyed feasts prepared by him. Uncle Roger will be missed!! “ My buddy...I miss your presence in my life already. You are rejoicing with your precious Dale. I don't remember a conversation that you did not reminisce a loving memory of the two of you. I know you have found Carlton and Willie, and keeping God laughing. I know Aunt Dovie, Uncle Aromie , and Herman, and Terri have wrapped you in a big hug...please don't be throwing dummies off bridges (best and favorite story memory). Oh but I will miss our rides, eating good groceries at your gatherings, and hearing Hey Girl on the phone. So many memories....Loss is echoed through Love, and it is Love that is echoed throughout eternity! I love you, my buddy! You have many real and true friends left and they are all truly heartbroken. YOU are loved now and forever in our hearts!

“ Sending love and prayers to all of Roger's special friends as they grieve the loss of such a great light. I am so happy that he and my mom, Dianne Driver, found each other again later in life. Seeing them together and the happiness they shared was amazing. I am so lucky that I got to know the great person that he was. Isabelle and I will miss you dearly, Roger. “ May you rest in peace my Handsome Gentleman. You will always be in my heart, right next to my soul.. You and I have shared so many beautiful memories. I will forever miss you. I will always cherish spending your last weekend at home with you. Although you were so sick, we did make and share long range plans, hopes and dreams. It would have been so amazing if those things could have happened. My Handsome Gentleman, you touched so many lives and inspired so many people along the way. You encouraged so many young people to accomplish so much.. Although you didn't have biological children, you certainly had a heart full of children that needed you along the way, your guidance meant so much to them. My Precious Roger, I will miss you and we will meet again. You will always be My Precious, Handsome Gentleman and I will hold you in my heart for the rest of my days. Thank you for the memories and the love. You will certainly be missed by so many. Until our next encounter, be at peace in your Heavenly Mansion. Hugs, to Mr. Roger from Isabelle and me.
