“ My mother was born in Holguin, Cuba in 1927. She met Floyd "Dobby" Dobson while he was stationed in GTMO. They married in 1952 in Cuba. Together they had 3 children, Elda, Floyd III (Junior), and Ronnie. In 1959 they purchased their home in South Norfolk. In 1962 Floyd retired from the U.S. Navy. December 1978, Dobby passed from a massive heart attack while in Glen Burnie, Maryland. In 1980, mama, Junior and Ronnie moved to Detroit, Michigan. She purchased a drinking establishment in the factory district on 8 Mile Road. After all the factories closed in 1987, she closed down the business. In 1983 she welcomed a grandson, Phillip, then came Drake, Jeremy, Krystal, Misty, and Wesley. In 2005 she was diagnosed with Alzheimer's. Her home in Warren, Michigan was sold and she purchased a home in Albany, Georgia where her daughter, Aleida, would care for her until her death on November 11, 2018 the day before my father's 92nd birthday had he lived. Miss you much ma!
