“ My Sweet Shirley Ann Rice, my sister, my side kic, my ride or die , I'm so lost without you, I told you we were peas an carrots, you would find me or I'd find you, we were stuck like chuck with each other, i just never thought it would happen like this , i cant imagine how beautiful your angel wings are, i just know that you earned your wings, only thru God will I be able to get thru this, I always said ya need me Ma ya need Me, turns out God needed you more, you will forever live in me, we've had some awesome travels with each other, I will truly miss you my best friend, but rest assured we will once again see each other on Gods beautiful shores, I'll cry awhile an laugh awhile, but I will still need you to guide me thru this, as I know you are still with me, Gods got you now, an has renewed your frail lil body, I know you finally at peace in your heart, so there will never be a goodbye, only PEACE till we meet again, I love you
