Steven Gough Obituary

Steven Gough, age 62 of Eugene, Oregon died Friday, November 22, 2019 at Archbold Memorial Hospital in Thomasville, Georgia.

Services will be announced at a later date.

Mr. Gough was born October 14, 1957 to the late Robert Eugene Gough and Ruth Carolyn George Gough in Elgin, Illinois.

After moving from Illinois to Oregon in 1976, Mr. Gough served as a volunteer firefighter at the Santa Clara Fire Department before serving 38 years with the United States Postal Service in Springfield, Oregon. Involvement with the Boy Scouts was important during his youth, which translated to adulthood as he volunteered to be a leader and mentor for his son's troop. Upon retirement, he lived out his dream of exploring the country as a full-time RVer.

Mr. Gough loved spending time with his kids, traveling, sports, fishing, music, and enjoying great food and beer. He was a passionate fan of the Chicago Cubs, Oregon Ducks, and Clemson Tigers.

He is survived by his mother, Ruth Gough, one son, Brady Gough, two daughters, Stefanie Gough and Carly Gough, and four sisters, Linda

Thompson, Kim Bennett, Laurie Sanderson, and Debbie Horne.

“ Ah, Steve...I just now am seeing this and mourning your loss, friend. I loved serving you beer at CF for years and building a friendship in that time. My thoughts and prayers for your kids that you always boasted of in the best, proud dad manner. Much, much love and rest in peace.

“ Knew Steve mostly as a fellow Scout leader with Troop 100 in Eugene, always steadfast and supportive of all the Scouts and activities. Also bent an elbow at an occasional shared table for a good craft beer. Thanks Steve, hope you had an easy journey to that next horizon.
