

Tamyra Lee Wilkins

November 28, 1960 - December 18, 2025

Tamyra Lee Wilkins, age 65, formally of Putnam County, FL, passed away peacefully on Thursday, December 18, 2025, at her residence in Norman Park, Ga.

She was born on November 28, 1960 in San Manuel, AZ to the late Theron Wilkins and Marvella Kight Anders. She was a woman of faith and a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Putnam County. Known as the “Hallmark Lady”, Tamyra spent many years working for Hallmark as a representative. Although Hallmark was her job- the sweet, fun, special spirit that Hallmark is known for was a true picture of Tamyra. A devoted mother, sister, and friend- her love for life, people, and adventure was infectious. She filled her time with all things good- trips to Crescent Beach, time spent with family and friends, practicing her green thumbs with plants, caring for animals, appreciating art, music, and dance, preparing delicious home cooked meals... she was an absolute joy and she will be deeply missed.

Survivors include her son - Christopher “Darren” (Amanda) White, sisters- Marsha Roach, Roxann Wilkins, Neva Griner, and Sandra (Randy) Key, and her four legged companion who she loved dearly- Maggie May.

In addition to her parents, Tamyra was preceded in death by her brothers- Gary Wilkins, Owen Anders, and Alma Anders, and nephew- Michael Bo

Griner.

“ TO: Tamyra
FROM: Neva

*You traveled to and fro
This world we all know~
Facing trials & tribulations,
With a heart of pure gold~*

*Loving & Lashing
Your courage prevailed~
Solemn & gentle
Seemed to no avail~*

*Your Faith stayed strong
To right your wrongs~
To get to the finish line
Where we all belong~
For it is then,
we all are blessed
With perfect rhythm & song~*

*Your beautiful, sweet Spirit
Always there~
Churning and burning
Like Summertime Air~*

*Your hugs so soft
As the morning dew~
Now you're in Heaven,
as good as new~
I'm patiently waiting to see your view~
I'm happy for you
Still, it leaves me blue~
Sorely missing
Your gentle hue~*

*Dining & Dancing
With the door left ajar~
Kept us all struggling
As you remained afar~*

*Trudging along your merry way~
While it was much to our dismay;
some intervened
And led you astray~*

*Yes, we are all sinners
But he has forgiven~
With his sacrifice & our repentance~*

*I went to the Hallmark Aisle today
Thinking of you & your beautiful face~
My chest grew tight
As I chose to fight~
The race you so bravely chased~*

*...and as the tears crept down my cheeks~
I heard, "my child, there's no reason to weep"~*

*Crystal Clear Blue Skies
With streets adorned in Gold~
Blissful Peace and Fervent Blessings
Are yours to behold~*

*Until such day, we shall meet again~
I'll be thankful & grateful
You're my next of kin~
I'll treasure our memories
Through Thick & Thin~
I shall not worry, for she is with Him~*

It takes a special person

*To be a little sister~
I'll hold you in my heart
With a gentle whisper~*

*Dancing & Dining
With Amazing Grace~
I'll walk softly & gently
'til I see your sweet face~*

*I'll keep you tucked away
Neatly in my heart~
Spirits in harmony
While we're apart~*

*My precious Lil' Sis'
I will miss~
As you walk
In Heavenly Bliss~*

“ I met this beautiful soul, nearly one year ago. She brightened my life. She was a true friend with a huge heart full of love, forgiveness, and pure gold. She took me in once, and we just clicked, and she became one of my best friends in such a short period of time. She adopted a dog, Maggie, that had been abandoned. Her and Maggie were meant for each other. They needed each other. They had a bond like no other. She was like a sister to me. I would've done anything for that woman. As she got sick in such a short period of time, I stayed by her side daily and nightly, spending lots of nights and weekends with her. Helped her in every way, bc she would've done the same for me, or anyone else for that matter. She never was harsh towards anyone. Helped everyone. Homeless people came to her and she fed and bathed and sometimes let them stay the night. I love you Tamyra. One day, we'll meet again. Until then, goodbye my dearest most loved and cherished friend/sister.

“ You always have that special someone in your family that was Tamyra Lee. She always had the sweetest smile that brightened up a room. She went through a lot of trials and tribulations that you wouldn't want to see most go through. She had a way of dealing with so much and you would have never known it she was in pain. Tamyra Lee you will always be loved and missed, I will always hold you in my heart. Your cousin Brenda
