Thomas Koning Obituary

"Tom" Thomas Koning (Sgt Teko), age 71, died peacefully at his home with his wife by his side, Monday night, January 31, 2022. He was born to William Koning and Jantena Boven.

He was a United States Marine who served in Vietnam, earned his Bachelor of Science Degree from Florida State University, and retired from North Palm Beach Public Safety Department.

He is survived by his wife Natalie; son Billy (Amelia); daughter Michelle (Justin); grandchildren Eric, Alexis, Jeremiah, Tommy, Bella, Adali, and one more on the way; sisters Donna (the late Butch) and Jan (Steve); brothers Bill (Lois) and Dick (Mary Lou); 11 nieces and nephews, several great, 10 great-great; sisters in law Donna (Carl) and Patty (Brian); brothers in law Danny and Troy; 14 nieces and nephews, 7 great, 2 great-great; Aunt Doris; many friends; as well as his many blue brothers and sisters.

No words can express how truly he will be missed. He was tired of being sick, but for him to be absent from his body, he is present with THE LORD. One day the trumpet will sound, the dead in CHRIST shall rise first, then we which are alive and remain will be caught up to meet them in the air. If you have not been adopted into FATHER GODs family through JESUS, PLEASE consider doing so. It's easy, it'll be the best decision you've ever made, you won't regret it, and nothing you've done is more powerful than THE BLOOD JESUS shed for your forgiveness, all you have to do is ask.

n lieu of flowers, cards and/or memorial contributions may be sent to his widow, Natalie Wood, P.O. Box 214, Pitts, GA 31072.

“ One of my first FTOs when I was 20 years old. Taught me a lot!
Some of my best memories, drinking beer at the marina after I turned 21 (after our shift was over of course). What a great sense of humor.

“ Tom Koning was a stand-up guy, and he was my Sergeant when I served alongside him at the North Palm Beach Police Department. He was always game for a philosophical debate, and spoke reverentially of his love, Natalie. She is who I had contact with once they moved away, and I understand why he was so devoted to her, as she was equally devoted to him. Sarge you will be missed, and I am so happy that you are whole once more. Rest in heavenly peace.

“ I remember Tom as a consummate professional, well liked, and always there as a backup. He always looked sharp and was a true friend to all of his colleagues.
