

Tracey Ann Rodgers

November 18, 1957 - November 16, 2025

Tracey Ann Dockery Rodgers, age 67, passed away on Sunday, November 16, 2025, in Valdosta, Georgia.

Born in Newark, New Jersey on November 18th, 1957, Tracey later made her home in Tennessee, where she proudly and lovingly raised her daughter. She retired with family in Valdosta, Georgia.

Tracey was preceded in death by her parents, Grace Conroy and William Dockery, as well as her younger brother, Thomas Dockery. Honoring her memory are her beloved daughter, Anna Jeong, and son-in-law Samuel, her brother William Dockery, her niece Krystina Conroy and her lifelong best friend, Cheryl Brimer, along with Cheryl's daughter, Kayla Brimer and her children, all of these people and more whom Tracey held close to her heart.

Tracey had a gift for friendship. She was warm, genuine, and instantly connected with everyone she met. She cherished her family deeply and had an especially profound love for her daughter, Anna, whom she proudly spoke about to anyone who would listen. She lived her life fully and unapologetically. Tracey was strong, loving, and joyfully spirited. Her infectious laugh could fill a room, and she had a remarkable ability to make others laugh until their stomachs hurt. She supported her friends and family wholeheartedly and never hesitated to share how proud she was of them. She often reached out with a message or a phone call just to ask how someone was doing, because she truly cared.

Tracey was a devoted mother, a cherished sister, and a loyal friend. She will be missed beyond measure by all who loved her.

In accordance with her wishes, Tracey will be cremated. A memorial service, hosted by her daughter, will be held at Bartlett Baptist Church in Bartlett, Tennessee. Friends and family are invited to come, share memories, and celebrate her life.
