

Trevia Autum Berry

June 25, 1976 - September 5, 2025

Trevia Autum Berry, 49, of Enigma, Ga. was born June 25, 1976 to Joyce and Timothy Ellington. She was adopted by Marty Meeks after he and Joyce married in 1978. Her husband, Larry Berry, passed away March 3, 2022. She is survived by sons, Justin and Johnathan (Reign), JoAnna (AJ) , her daughter, and fiancé John Matylewicz.

Trevia marched to the beat of her own drum. She had a wonderful sense of humor and made the best of the situations life handed her. She was a 1994 graduate of Henry County High School and worked in various positions but was mostly a homemaker. Trevia had a big heart, never met a stranger, and was always willing to help those she loved.

She is also survived by Joyce Bell (Greg), Marty Meeks (Linda), brothers TJ (Becky), Sam (Adam), and Michael (Julie); a host of aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews, cousins, and many friends including Jamie Hudson, her constant companion.

Trevia spent her final hours under the wonderful care of the staff at Tift Regional Medical Center who went above and beyond in providing care and attention.

Reflection Cremation & Funeral Service in Tifton is assisting the family with arrangements, a memorial service is planned and will be announced at a later date.

Tribute Wall

JH

“ Jamie Hudson lit a candle in memory of Trevia Autum Berry

Jamie Hudson - September 18, 2025 at 01:51 PM

JH

“ Doing tik tocs together just laughing and have fun enjoying life.

Jamie Hudson - September 18, 2025 at 01:51 PM

L(

“ I'm not sure where to begin! Trevia and I became from friends a very unique way when we were in middle school, let's say we was kinda forced into it, (LOL) but boy were we glad. I spent so much time at her house, it was like I was one of her siblings. Her parents and brothers welcomed me just like I was their sister amd child. Over the years I was able to see her get married, have kids and be there to help when I could. She definitely danced to her own music, but that's what made everyone love Trevia (beba) I will forever remember the memories good and bad we shared and will carry those in my heart. I will miss my couple of snap chats she sent me daily. It's a good feeling knowing I have another angel to watch over me. Until we meet again, love you sis ❤️

Lisa Ali (Dunning) - September 06, 2025 at 05:38 PM

AN

“ I'm her Aunt Mary by marriage to her Uncle Mike Hood and our Brandy's first cousin ever to meet her as a cousin and the first one to kiss her .I have a picture her mother Joyce was there too.Trevia and Brandy were very close right from the start.Trevia use to stop by my house her and Jojo and we would just talk.I have many good memories with her as does Brandy.We know you're with the Angels Trevia and we will always love and miss her.🌸❤️

Aunt Mary Hood Newsom - September 06, 2025 at 01:15 PM

DW

“ I was her first babysitter when her mom Joyce worked in East Point with her mom Okla. I watched her grow into a beautiful young woman full of life and love for all who new her. You will be missed so very much.

Donna Williams - September 06, 2025 at 12:45 PM

LB

“ I remember when she was born and her brother TJ , the beautiful blonde hair she had ! My deepest sympathy and love to my cousins at this time

Lisa Burch - September 06, 2025 at 11:58 AM

LM

“ you always looked so beautiful, make up on, lashes done, i'll always remember you telling me to stay ready so i don't have to get ready. you were so beautiful. saying i miss you is an understatement.

lani meeks - September 06, 2025 at 11:47 AM

CS

“ One of my earliest memories growing up in Jonesboro had Trevia in it. She was my best friend. In fact not long ago I came across pictures of her family that I had at that time. We spoke through out the years. She was truly a remarkable person!

Cherish Spratt - September 06, 2025 at 07:54 AM

SB

“ Trevia when I first met her and she introduced herself to me in the family. She said my name is Treva spelt like the game Trevia. She is definitely a social bug and loved pictures with family and friends. Those pictures she did I know you will now cherish them for a lifetime because now that's what we can hang up or remember her in our hearts with. ❤️ Trevia was the only girl of if 4. She lived her 3 brothers and they lived her. She was very blessed to have a great Dad (Marty) And Mom (Linda) whom took them all to church and taught them of the Lord!!! Until we meet again Trevia know we will surely miss you!!! 🙌 You are now face to face with Jesus and without pain!!! You are finally home and made whole!!! Prayers for the family during this time of grief!!! May the Lord give you all and us comfort and peace. We love you all!!! 🙏❤️🙌🙏

Sharon Bell - September 05, 2025 at 10:32 PM

TM

“ She was my Big little sister. Only 9 months older, she always called me her older brother. A badge I wore with pride. There was and will only be one beba. Dancing to the beat only Trevia could hear, The life of any party. A elite social butterfly. A royal pain in my behind but she was MY sister. She always wanted a hug before we left each other. She loved taking selfies with all of us brothers. She always told us... come on.. do it for me. Yall get me likes on social media. She always loved to talk to me about my travels. She was always sure to tell me how much she was impressed by me . She knew how to push all the right buttons at the right time. It's funny how much I miss my annoying sister. Love you beba . I hope to see you in Glory.

TJ Meeks - September 05, 2025 at 09:37 PM

DN

“ Trevia moved into my neighborhood while we were children. I was an only child and well... That gets lonely. That summer was the best! Someone my age to hang out with. As the obit says, and indeed, she did walk to the beat of her own drum. As did I. School started and we had our own circle of friends. Oh my... We didn't often see eye to eye after that. But that never stopped my love for her! Gone too young, too soon. I feel cheated as I am sure so many do. I couldn't swallow when I saw her father's post about her passing. I lost my own daughter in 2105. My most heartfelt love, prayers and thoughts go out to her mom and dad (Marty and Linda) and her brothers. Also to her children. This is a loss that is not suppose to happen. I know that all too well. I pray she has now found everlasting peace and happiness in the arms of Jesus. Rest easy my friend. May we meet again where we will always see eye to eye because we are know as we are known. I love you!

Donna Norton - September 05, 2025 at 09:13 PM

“ Trevia’s laugh was infectious. I will forever miss her smile. ”

linda meeks - September 05, 2025 at 09:11 PM