

Wesley Earl Williams

July 9, 1990 - September 22, 2025

Wesley Earl Williams, beloved father, son, and friend, passed away on Monday, September 22, 2025, at the age 35.

He was born on July 9, 1990 in Sylvester, Georgia to Ralph E. Williams and Nyloracia “Lori” Saunders. A country boy through and through- you could find him fishing, tending to his flowers, squirrel hunting, and teaching his kids about nature. He realized the value of simple things and survival skills, making sure his children knew traits that could carry with them. He was a jack of all trades- he could throw down in the kitchen and also do any kind of labor needed. He loved farming- being on the tractor with his kids was his happy place. He had a light and fun spirit to him- known to aggravate those he loved most- giving “wet willies” as an act of his love. He would do anything for anyone, and he will be missed more than words can say.

Survivors include his three precious children, who he loved more than anything- Annabelle Williams, Rickie Williams, and Gracelynn Williams, his mother- Lori Saunders, special family member- Bristol Williams, siblings- Matthew (& Amber) Williams, Brittany (& Denny) Michaud, nephew and niece- Tyson Williams and Hadley Williams, and a host of cousins, family, and friends.

Wesley was preceded in death by his father- Ralph Williams, niece- Brooklyn

Cole, uncles- Tony Williams and Rickie Saunders, first cousin- Allen Saunders, and his grandparents.

“ Wesley you wasn't just my cousin. You're my brother. All of us grew up together so close. You, Matt, Zach, Allen, Jeremy, Heather and me. Spending every day together at Granny's or at our house. Swimming, riding bike, sharing the water hose haha and just being kids. All of those memories I will hold onto tight. We may all have drifted apart in this thing called life but that never stopped the bond we all formed growing up. I'm torn between feeling grief and feeling relief that you don't have to suffer any more. You are going to be missed more than you will ever know. You, Matt and Jeremy will always be my brothers. Until we meet again, Wesley. I love you and I'm sending up hugs to you.

“Damn man. Somebody you known your whole life. It wasn't suppose to be like this Wes. Even in the hard times when we couldn't stand each other I still love you more that I could possibly imagine. You were gonna be alright and I knew it Wes, you was gonna take back what was yours and just do it. I had no doubt in it. I want so bad to be mad but I can't help but find peace in knowing the last two weeks of life was a time you made peace with things. We had already made peace about things and I was so proud of you. I just wish I was able to tell you in person and I wish I had saw you. Hadley is so pretty bubba and you'd been so proud of her Wes. She has red hair and I have no idea how but she does. I know you would have gave me a time about that and I'd do anything to hear it. Amber is such a good mama to her and good to Tyson. He is already so tall and a good looking young man and respectful Wes. I hope he is able to learn and do whatever he chooses like you and I were able to do. He took it pretty hard and it's bothering him I know he is gonna miss you!! Rickey, is you twin, he inside asleep right now with ty, as the tears fall right now and I can't help but be torn apart I promise I got him and the girls! I'll never fault on that promise bubba! Through hell or high waters I'll make sure I'm always behind them even if it in The shadows, I'll never let your memory be lost and they will always know who you were in the good times and bad Wes! I'll never let anyone run them down and hurt them. I wish you were here to do it but God has better plans! Bubba as I watch over them the best I can, please watch over me and help guide me while I navigate this without you here. Idk much else to say, bristol is gonna miss you I know it and even in death regardless of the situations that took place, I know you loved her and she loved you I don't think that will ever change. Mama, she is hurting I know. I got her too Wes I will try my best anyhow. Brittany gonna miss the hell out of you too, it's crazy how FedEx knew right where to drop her off, she completed our family two brother and a sister. You know last few years I hadn't had much involvement with anyone you, her, mama, even distant from you and Amber at times and I'm gonna change that and make this life mine again. I learned something I needed to the night we found out, I could've swore you called my name and was telling me it was ok In The moment that this came to me, but I'ma listen more and talk less. I bet that's funny too you and laugh away IDC. I'm sorry I don't see you and get to give you a hug and the proper respect you deserved. Just want you to know Wes you always were something even when you felt you wast you were, you leaving has left a void in so many places but as you watch my back from time to time let me know your there even if it's you pinching me IDC. Wes I'll always be your little brother and will love you till we meet again brother!!!
